IDMC have in past performed at many open air and indoor music festivals, all with the same results, complete success.

The combination of uptempo songs, uplifting lyrics, crowd participation, dance routines, meaningful ballads has always left audiences begging for more, at the end of a show.

Knowing how to handle an audience has been John and the groups strong point for over 10 years, and they do this with ease everytime.

Combined with IDMC's intensive vocal and musical skill and a vibrant show, your audience will have the time of their lives.
